

Compatible SFP Aggregation Switch Supplier in Fiji

Article Overview

You can source compatible SFP aggregation switches in Fiji from Desertcart (TP-Link), Tappoo Online Store (Tenda), and Vodafone Fiji.

Recommended Suppliers and Products

1. Desertcart - TP-Link Switches Desertcart offers the TP-Link 24 Port Gigabit Smart Managed Switch (T1700G-28TQ) with 4 10G SFP+ slots, stackable functionality, and advanced features like VLAN, QoS, link aggregation, IPv6 support, and static routing. It is suitable for high-bandwidth applications and supports physical stacking for up to 6 units, providing redundancy and scalability. Desertcart ships directly to cities in Fiji including Suva, Nadi, Lautoka, and Nasinu, with free delivery options . 2. Tappoo Online Store - Tenda Networking Tappoo, Fiji's largest department store with an online presence, stocks Tenda networking products, including switches with SFP ports suitable for aggregation and campus networks. They offer online ordering with major credit card payments and in-store pickup options, making it convenient for local businesses to acquire networking equipment . 3. Vodafone Fiji - PoE and Aggregation Switches Vodafone Fiji provides PoE switches and networking solutions for business customers. While primarily focused on PoE, their offerings include switches with SFP uplinks suitable for aggregation in small to medium enterprise networks. Vodafone also provides support, installation guidance, and pricing plans for local deployment .
