

Price of passivated cable trays in Ireland

Article Overview

Passivated cable trays in Ireland are available from multiple suppliers, with prices varying based on material, size, and load rating.

Overview

Passivated cable trays are typically made from steel with a protective passivation layer to resist corrosion, making them suitable for industrial and commercial installations. Prices depend on factors such as tray type (ladder, wire mesh, trough, or basket), width, length, and duty rating (light, medium, or heavy) .
