

Ranking of manufacturers selling optical power meters

Article Overview

Top optical power meter manufacturers in 2026 include L-com, Novanta Photonics, and Agiltron Inc., with other notable players like Fluke, Thorlabs, Newport, and Viavi Solutions also leading the market.

Top-Ranked Manufacturers

According to Metoree's 2026 ranking, the leading optical power meter companies are:

- L-com – recognized for high-quality fiber-optic measurement solutions and broad product range.
- Novanta Photonics – specializes in precision photonics instruments for industrial and research applications.
- Agiltron Inc. – known for innovative optical measurement devices and high-performance sensors .

Other Key Market Leaders

Global Info Research identifies additional prominent manufacturers based on sales, revenue, and market share:

- Fluke – widely used for benchtop and portable optical power meters in industrial and lab settings.
- Thorlabs – offers a comprehensive portfolio of photonics instruments, including high-precision meters....
