

US Fireproof Cable Tray Supplier

Article Overview

MP Husky and Legrand are leading US manufacturers of fireproof and UL/CSA/NEMA-compliant cable tray systems.

MP Husky

MP Husky, founded in 1955, is a prominent US manufacturer specializing in UL, CSA, and NEMA-certified cable tray systems, including wire mesh/basket trays, ladder trays, and cable bus power distribution systems . They offer fire-resistant and nuclear-grade cable trays, designed for demanding industrial, commercial, and infrastructure applications. MP Husky provides customized solutions, 3D modeling support, and extensive engineering services, ensuring compliance with safety standards and fireproof requirements .

Legrand

Legrand is another US-based supplier offering heavy-duty metallic ladder trays and cable management systems suitable for fire-resistant installations . Their products include straight sections, horizontal and vertical fittings, covers, and splices, all designed for durability and safety in high-risk environments. Legrand emphasizes quality assurance and rapid shipping, making them a reliable choice for industrial and commercial projects .
